Climate Data User Agreement

The Climate Data User Agreement

BETWEEN:

Ministry of Environment, Climate Change, Disaster Management & Meteorology - hereafter called “Solomon Islands Meteorological Service” as the supplier.

And

hereafter called “the Recipient”.

WHEREAS

The supplier is the custodian of the Climate Data and has agreed to grant permission to the Recipient to use the data for non-commercial purposes as specified in the agreement.

THE PARTIES AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

1. That the recipient will not supply or provide to a third party by selling the data, products derived from the data, for financial gains without the prior consent of the Solomon Islands Meteorological Services.
2. That the recipients may use the data for non-commercial purposes specified under the schedule in the agreement.
3. The supplier of the data is the absolute owner of all intellectual property rights, including copyright in the data; thus, the recipient acknowledges that this agreement confers upon the recipient no proprietary rights whatsoever in the data.
4. The Recipient shall ensure that the appropriate acknowledgement and copyright notice are prominently displayed on all copies made of the data or enhanced products produced from the data.
5. The supplier does not provide a warranty as to the condition or quality of the data to the recipients to meet its requirements. The recipient is solely responsible for ensuring that the data supplied meets its own needs.
6. The recipient acknowledges that it shall use the data as described in the Schedule at its own risk and agrees that the supplier shall not be liable for any loss or damage arising from the direct or indirect use of the data.
7. The recipient shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that all employees, contractors, consultants, students, and other persons having access to the data keep the data confidential and do not disclose or use the data for any purpose other than in accordance with this agreement.
